

THE PINK GIFT FAIR 2017

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- 1) Stall bookings are selected at the end of March and accepted stallholders are notified in April. We aim to create a well-balanced event, and this consideration will ultimately determine whether or not an applicant is offered a space.
 - 2) Any item displayed and deemed offensive to the public or the charities will be instructed to be removed.
 - 3) At the time of booking all traders should include information and literature about their product and where possible these are the items that should be displayed at the fair. Please include your website address.
 - 4) Any products sold must comply with relevant safety standards and we ask that certificates be displayed.
 - 5) Traders and staff must conduct their business in a manner that does not interfere or conflict with the interests of other traders. Any persons found to be offensive, may be asked to leave with no refund offered.
 - 6) You are asked to set up before the fair opens on Saturday at 9.30am In the interest of other traders and the public, all traders must complete the setting-up of their stand and man it before the Fair opens. Any trader found to break down before Sunday 4pm will be in breach of health and safety rules and the venue may have to be closed to the public.
 - 7) The venue for the fair will be secure overnight. However, the organisers cannot accept any responsibility for lost or damaged goods, through vandalism, theft or any other means at any time during the fair set up, opening times or breakdown.
 - 8) The organiser's can not be held responsible for any money lost or stolen from the venue or parked vehicles
 - 9) By signing the application form you are agreeing to the Fairs terms and conditions as set out here.
 - 10) The event has Cancer Research Public Liability Insurance but traders are responsible for any accidents or injuries to the public caused by their products or display stands etc., and it is a condition of taking part in the Fair that stallholders must supply copies of their Public Liability insurance prior to the fair opening.
 - 11) Any stallholder that uses electricity must supply an up to date PAT testing certificates for each device.
 - 12) All providers of food must provide and display a food hygiene certificate. No cooking is allowed in/ outside of the venue.
 - 13) Vehicles are to move slowly and obey directional signage throughout set up, opening times and breakdown. Vehicles are parked at owner's own risk. Stallholders requiring special help or displaying a disabled badge should notify organiser's prior to fair commencing.
- PAYMENT
- 14) To secure your stand, payment must be sent immediately on receiving an offer of a stall (cheques made payable to The Pink Gift Fair). The invite will be removed after 10 working days.
 - 15) To keep the stand fees low we request 10% of your takings at end of the Fair and a donation of a suitable prize for the raffle during build up.
 - 16) The organiser's reserve the right to cancel the event, without refunds, at any time due to circumstances outside their control.
 - 17) Refunds will only be provided after the event. No refunds will be offered if stand is cancelled one month prior to date of fair commencing. 50% refunds will be made should cancellation be before this time and stall can be re-sold.
